

PRINCESS MONA TELLS US CITY FOLK WHY WE LIKE INDIAN PLAYS

Princess Mona Darkfeather.

"Every day the people of the United States seem to grow more interested in the customs and habits and manner of life of the Indians!"

"As men and women crowd more to the cities and civilization grows more complex, the public searches more diligently for entertainment which re-enacts the primitive. At least this seems true in moving pictures."

Princess Mona Darkfeather thinks all this. She should be versed, for work in big, clever Indian pictures is known wherever a photoplay is
